5.3. When necessary, the charter capital of the Company can be:

Increased by increasing the par value of shares of issuing additional shares;

Reduced by reducing the par value of shares or reducing the number of shares, including by buying or redemption of part of the Company's placed shares in accordance with these Articles of Association.

Decision to increase the charter capital by increasing the par value of shares is made by the General Shareholders Meeting.

Additional shares may be placed by the Company only within the number of declared shares specified by the Company's Articles of Association.

Decision to increase the Company's charter capital by placing additional shares is made by the Company's Board of Directors, provided the Federal Law "On joint-stock companies" does not specify that this matter is in the competence of the General Shareholders Meeting. Such decision should be made by all members of the Board of Directors unanimously, without votes of exiting members of the Company's Board of Directors.

Increasing the charter capital of the Company by issuing additional shares must comply with the requirements set out by Article 28, Federal Law "On joint-stock companies".

Decision to reduce the charter capital of the Company and to make relevant changes to the Company's Articles of Association is made by the General Shareholders Meeting according to the requirements set out by Articles 29 and 30, Federal Law "On joint-stock companies".

Article 6. Article 6. Shares, bonds and other issued securities of the Company.

6.1. All shares issued and placed by the Company are registered ordinary uncertified shares of equal par value.

Cost of share is expressed in rubles, regardless of form or method of payment.

6.2. If a share belongs to several persons, the Company shall treat all such persons as a single shareholder, they exercise their rights through one of them or through a common representative. Coowners of one share are collectively liable against shareholder's obligations.

6.3. Shareholder's rights with regard to the Company shall be determined by the category and type of shares owned by shareholder.

6.4. Shareholders with Company's ordinary shares have the right to:

a) under the Articles of Association, take part at the General Shareholders Meeting with the right to vote on any issues within the purview of the General meeting;

b) receive dividends;

c) receive part of the Company's property in the event of liquidation.

Ordinary shares shall not be converted into privileged shares, bonds and other securities.

Each ordinary share of the Company gives the shareholder who owns such share the same scope of rights.

Company shareholders are entitled to alienate the shares they own without consent of other shareholders and the Company.

The rights of a Company's shareholder shall be exercised in accordance with the law, these Articles of Association and resolutions passed by the Company's management bodies within their purview as provided by these Articles of Association.

6.5. Shareholders are entitled to exercise their rights directly as well as through representatives who can be any third party, including other shareholders and Company's officers.

Shareholders may appoint their representatives as provided by the Civil Code of the Russian Federation and Federal Law "On joint-stock companies".

6.6. The Company may issue and place bonds and other securities as provided by the legal acts of the Russian Federation on securities.

Bonds and other securities are placed by decision of the Board of Directors, except if placed by decision of the General Shareholders Meeting according to Article 39, Federal Law "On joint-stock companies".

6.7. The Company provides security buyers with complete information about conditions specified by these Article of Association and other conditions of issue, placement and circulation of Company securities.

Article 7. Funds and net assets of the Company.

7.1. The Company shall create a reserve fund 7.3 percent of the charter capital. The reserve fund is made by mandatory annual deductions in the amount of 7.3 percent of the Company's net profit until the fund reaches the aforementioned value.

The reserve fund shall be used solely for covering Company's losses as well as for redemption of bonds and shares of the Company if no other funds are available.

7.2. The Company shall create an employee share ownership fund from net profit. This fund shall be used solely for buying shares of the Company sold by its shareholders for placement of such shares among Company employees.

In case if the Company shares bought from the employee share ownership fund are sold to employees at profit, the proceeds shall be allocated to the employee share ownership fund.

Regulations of the employee share ownership fund shall be approved by the Board of Directors.

7.3. With a view to securing obligations of the Company, providing industrial and social development of the Company, appropriate designated funds shall be created from Company's profit or any other receipts.

7.4. Cost of the Company's net assets is based on the accounting data as specified by the law.

CHAPTER III

Placement by the Company of shares and other securities. Shares acquisition and buy-back.

Article 8. Placement by the Company of shares and other securities.

8.1. The Company shall place shares and other securities in accordance with the requirements set out by Federal Law “On joint-stock companies”, Federal Law “Securities market” and other legal acts.

8.2. The Company is entitled to place additional shares and other securities by subscription or by other methods as provided by Federal Law “On joint-stock companies”.

8.3. The Company is entitled to place shares and other securities of the Company converted into shares by decision of the Company’s Board of Directors, unless Federal Law “On joint-stock companies” does not specify that such decisions fall within the purview of the General Shareholders Meeting.

Decisions to place shares and securities converted into shares within the purview of the General Shareholders Meeting under Article 39, Federal Law “On joint-stock companies”, shall be made by three quarters majority of the shareholders, who own voting stock, participating in the General Shareholders Meeting.

8.4. Payment for additional shares of the Company placed by subscription is made at market value determined by the Company’s Board of Directors under Federal Law “On joint-stock companies”, but not lower than par value, unless otherwise provided by Federal Law “On joint-stock companies”. Allocation price of the additional shares placed by subscription, or the procedure of determining such price shall be specified in the decision to increase the charter capital of the Company by allocation of additional shares, unless otherwise specified by the said decision that such price and procedure of determining price shall be set forth by the Company's Board of Directors not later than at the beginning of additional shares allocation.

8.5. The shareholder’s pre-emptive right to buy new issue of shares is exercised under Articles 40 and 41, Federal Law “On joint-stock companies”.

Article 9. Acquisition by the Company of placed shares.

9.1. The Company is entitled to buy the shares it placed by decision of the General Shareholders Meeting to reduce the charter capital of the Company by acquisition of part of the placed shares in order to reduce the total number of shares. The decision to reduce the charter capital by the aforementioned method shall not be made if par values of the shares remaining in circulation become lower than the minimum amount of the charter capital specified by Federal Law “On joint-stock companies”.

The shares bought by decision of the General Shareholders Meeting to reduce the charter capital are paid off after acquisition.

9.2. The Company is entitled to buy the shares it placed by decision of the Board of Directors. Such decision can be made if par value of the Company shares remaining in circulation is at least 90 percent of the Company’s charter capital.

The acquired shares do not grant the right to vote, they are not included into the vote count, they do not generate any dividends. Such shares shall be sold for not less than their market value not later than within one year from their purchase date. Otherwise, the General Shareholders Meeting shall make a decision to reduce the charter capital by paying off the said shares.

9.3. Decision to buy shares should specify the categories (types) of shares to be bought, number of shares to be bought in each category (type), purchase price, form and method of payment, and the period during which the shares shall be bought.

Payment for the shares as they are bought is made in cash or other property of the Company. Purchase price is determined under Article 77, Federal Law “On joint-stock companies”. The period during which shares are bought shall not be less than 30 days.

9.4. Each shareholder who owns shares of certain categories (types), for which a decision to buy is made, is entitled to sell the said shares and the Company must buy such shares. If the total number of shares for which the nomination to buy was made is more than the number of shares which the Company is entitled to buy, the shares are bought from the shareholders proportionally to the declared demand to buy.

9.5. Not later than within 30 days before the beginning of the period during which shares will be bought, the Company shall notify its shareholders owning shares of certain categories (types) for which the decision to buy was made. Notification should contain details provided in the first paragraph of p. 9.3. of these Articles of Association.

9.6. Shares shall not be bought under circumstances specified by Article 73, Federal Law “On joint-stock companies”.

Article 10. Share consolidation and split.

10.1. Consolidation of the placed shares resulting in conversion of two or more shares of the Company into a single new share of the same category (type) may be carried out by decision of the General Shareholders Meeting. In this case, the Articles of Association shall be amended to set forth the par value and number of Company’s placed and declared shares of certain category (type).

If shareholder cannot buy a whole number of shares after consolidation, split shares (fractional shares) are created.

A fractional share grants shareholder who owns such share the rights granted by a share of certain category (type) in the scope equal to the fraction of the whole share it comprises.

10.2. By decision of the General Shareholders Meeting, the Company is entitled to fractionate the placed shares of the Company resulting in one share of the Company being split into two or more Company’s shares of the same category (type). In this case, the Articles of Association shall be amended to set forth the par value and number of Company’s placed and declared shares of certain category (type).

Article 11. Redemption of shares by order of shareholders.

11.1. Shareholders who own voting stock have the right to order the Company to buy back all or part of the shares they own in the following cases:

Reorganization of the Company or making a major transaction for which approval decision is made by the General Shareholders Meeting in accordance with p. 3, Article 79, Federal Law “On joint-stock companies”;

making amendments and supplements to the Articles of Association (or approval by the General Shareholders Meeting of the decision constituting a basis for making amendments and supplements to the Articles of Association) or approval of a new revision of the Articles of Association limiting their rights;

Adoption by the General Shareholders Meeting of decision to apply for delisting of the Company shares and (or) issued securities of the Company converted into its shares.

This order may be made by the shareholders who voted against the decisions the Company made or by those who did not take part in voting on these issues.

11.2. The list of shareholders having the right to order share redemption is made on the basis of the Company’s Shareholder Register on the date when the list was made of persons who had the right to participate at the General Shareholders Meeting with agenda that included such items that could ensue the right to order share redemption.

11.3. Notification on holding the General Shareholders Meeting with agenda that includes the issues specified in p. 11.1. of this Article must include information about the right to order share redemption, price and procedure of share redemption.

11.4. Shareholder’s order to buy back the shares he/she owns is sent in writing to the Company; it must contain information about shareholder’s residence (location) and the number of shares that the shareholder orders to buy back. Shareholder signature on the redemption order, regardless whether it is of an individual or a representative, must be authenticated by either a notary or by the keeper of the Company’s Shareholder Register.

Shareholders’ orders to buy back their shares shall be presented to the Company not later than within 45 days from the date when the decision was made by the General Shareholders Meeting.

Within 30 days upon expiry of the aforementioned period when shareholders can order redemption, the Company shall buy shares from the shareholders who ordered redemption.

11.5. The Company buys back shares at a price determined by the Company’s Board of Directors, but not below the market price which must be determined by an independent assessor, without any price variations resulted from actions of the Company which caused the emergence of the right to order share assessment and redemption.

The buyback price for Company shares in the case as provided by the fourth paragraph of point 11.1 of this Articles of Association cannot be less than their average weighted price determined by results of trading during six months before the date of making decision to convene the General Shareholders Meeting whose agenda contains the item about applying to delist the Company shares and (or) issued securities of the Company converted into its shares.

11.6. The total sum of funds allocated by the Company to buy back shares cannot exceed 10% of the Company's net assets cost on the date when the decision was made which resulted in the shareholders' right to order share redemption.

In case if the total number of shares ordered to be bought back exceeds the number of shares which can be bought by the Company, considering the above limitation, the shares are bought from the shareholders proportionally to the number of shares ordered to be bought back.

11.7. The shares bought back by the Company shall be at the disposal of the Company. The acquired shares do not grant the right to vote, they are not included into the vote count, they do not generate any dividends. These shares can be sold at a price not below their market price not later than within one year since the transfer of the ownership right for the shares to the Company, otherwise the General Shareholders Meeting shall make a decision to reduce the Company's charter capital by retirement of the said shares.

CHAPTER IV.

Company dividends.

Article 12. Dividends.

12.1. The Company is entitled to pay dividends depending on performance during the first quarter, 6 months, 9 months of a fiscal year and/or performance of the fiscal year.

Dividends are paid in cash.

12.2. Decision to pay dividends, including decision regarding the sum of dividends on shares of each category (type) is made by the General shareholder meeting upon the recommendation of the Board of Directors. The sum of dividends cannot exceed the sum recommended by the Board of Directors. The General Shareholders Meeting may decide not to pay dividends.

12.3. The Company cannot make decision (declare) to pay dividends on the shares:

Until full payment of the Company's charter capital;

Until redemption of all shares that must be bought back under Article 11 of these Articles of Association;

If, on the date when such decision is made, the Company has indications of insolvency (bankruptcy) in accordance with the RF laws on insolvency (bankruptcy) or if the said indications will result from payment by the Company of dividends;

If, on the date when such decision is made, the Company's net assets cost is less than its charter capital and the reserve fund, and if disposal value of the placed privileged shares exceeds the par value determined by the Articles of Association or becomes less as result of making such decision;

In other cases as provided for by the Federal Law.

12.4. The Company shall be liable to pay dividends declared for shares of each category (type), unless otherwise is provided for by the Federal Law "On joint-stock companies".

Dividends are paid from the Company's net profit. Dividends shall not be paid on the Company's shares which are on the balance sheet.

12.5. Dividend payment period and procedure are determined by the General Shareholders Meeting. Dividend payment period shall not exceed 60 days since the date when the decision to pay dividends is made. If dividend payment period is not determined by the General Shareholders Meeting, it is considered to be 60 days from the date when the decision to pay dividends is made. The Company has no right to provide preferential treatment in terms of dividend payment period to any specific owners of shares of a specific category (type). Payments of the declared dividends on shares of each category (type) must be made simultaneously to all owners of this category (type) of shares.

The list of persons having the right to receive dividends is made on the same date when the list of persons who have the right to participate at the General Shareholders Meeting where decision to pay such dividends is made.

12.6. The Company has no right to pay declared dividends on shares:

If, on the date when such decision is made, the Company has indications of insolvency (bankruptcy) in accordance with the RF laws on insolvency (bankruptcy) or if the said indications will result from payment by the Company of dividends;

If, on the date when such decision is made, the Company's net assets cost is less than its charter capital and the reserve fund, and if disposal value of the placed privileged shares exceeds the par value determined by the Articles of Association or becomes less as result of making such decision;

In other cases as provided for by the Federal Law.

In case if the circumstances specified in this clause cease to exist, the Company is obliged to pay shareholders the declared dividends.

12.7. If, during the dividend payment period, the declared dividends are not paid to the person included in the list of persons entitled to receive dividends, such person has the right to request the Company to pay dividends within 3 years upon expiry of the aforementioned period.

The period when request can be made to pay declared dividends, in case it is omitted, shall not be restored, unless the person entitled to receive dividends did not make such request under the influence of violence or threat.

Upon expiry of the period specified in this clause, the dividends declared and not collected by shareholder are included into unallocated profit of the Company.

CHAPTER V

Register of the Company Shareholders.

Article 13. Register of the Company Shareholders.

13.1. The Register of the Company Shareholders contains information about each registered person, number and categories (types) of shares registered by name of such person, other information as provided for by legal acts of the Russian Federation.

13.2. The Register of the Company Shareholders is kept and maintained by a designated registrar. The Register of the Company Shareholders shall be stored in the Russian Federation.

13.3. The keeping and maintaining of the Register of the Company Shareholders shall not relieve the Company from responsibility for keeping and maintaining the Register. The Company is responsible for timely registration, for completeness, accuracy and safety of the information contained in the Register of the Company Shareholders.

13.4. The person registered in the Register of the Company Shareholders shall timely inform the Register keeper about any changes of his/her personal details. In the event of failure to advise of any changes of his/her personal details, the Company and the registrar shall not bear responsibility for any loss resulted in this connection.

13.5. Entry is made into the Register of the Company Shareholders by order of a shareholder, a nominee shareholder or, in cases specified by Federal Law “On joint-stock companies”, by other persons not later than within three days from the moment when the documents specified by the RF legal acts are presented. The RF legal acts may stipulate a shorter period for making entries into the Register of the Company Shareholders.

13.6. Any denial to make entry into the Register of the Company Shareholders is not acceptable, unless as provided for by the laws of the Russian Federation. In case of denial to make entry into the Register of the Company Shareholders, the keeper of the Register, not later than within five days from the moment when request is given to make entry into the Register of the Company Shareholders, shall send to the person who ordered to make entry a reasoned notification of denial to make entry.

Denial to make entry into the Register of the Company Shareholders can be appealed against at court. By court decision, the keeper of the Register must make the appropriate entry into the Register of the Company Shareholders.

13.7. By order of a shareholder or a nominee shareholder, the keeper of the Register must confirm such shareholder’s rights for shares by providing an excerpt from the Register of the Company Shareholders. Such excerpt from the Register of the Company Shareholders is not a valuable security.

Article 23. Preparation for the General Shareholders Meeting.

23.1. During the preparation for the General Shareholders Meeting, the Board of Directors shall:

Determine the form in which the General Shareholders Meeting will be conducted (physical attendance or absentee voting);

Set the date, venue and time for the General Shareholders Meeting, and the postal address to which completed ballots should be sent, if those are allowed to be sent to the Company pursuant to the Clause 3 of the Article 60 of the Federal Law "On joint-stock companies"; or, in case of absentee voting, set the deadline for acceptance of ballots and the postal address to which such ballots should be sent;

Set the deadline for making the list of persons entitled to participate in the General Shareholders Meeting;

Determine the agenda of the General Shareholders Meeting;

Determine the procedure for notifying the shareholders of the General Meeting;

Determine the list of information (materials) to be provided to the shareholders in preparation for the General Meeting, and the procedure for providing such information;

Determine the form and wording of the voting ballot in case of vote by polls.

23.2. The agenda of the annual General Shareholders Meeting must contain items concerning the election of the Company's Board of Directors and Audit Commission members, approval of the Company's auditor nomination, approval of annual statements and annual accounting reports, including Company's profit and loss statements (profit and loss accounts) as well as profit distribution, including payment (declaration) of the Company's dividends, and loss distribution based on the Company performance during the fiscal year.

Article 24. Extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting

24.1. An extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting can be held by resolution of the Board of Directors at its own initiative, or at the request of the Company's Audit Commission or the Company's Auditor, or shareholders (a shareholder) who own(s) not less than 10% of the Company's voting shares as of the date of the request.

An extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting at the request of the Company's Audit Commission, or the Company's Auditor or its shareholder(s) owning not less than 10 per cent of the Company's voting shares shall be convened by the Company's Board of Directors.

24.2. An extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting called at the request of the Company's Audit Commission, or the Company's Auditor, or its shareholder(s) owning not less than 10 per cent of the Company's voting shares shall be held within 40 days of the date the corresponding request is presented.

If the proposed agenda of the extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting contains an item regarding the election of the Company's Board of Directors' members, such extraordinary meeting shall be held within 70 days the corresponding request is presented.

24.3. Where, in accordance with provisions of the Articles 68-70 of the Federal Law "On joint-stock companies", the Company's Board of Directors should make a decision about holding an extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting, such General Shareholders Meeting shall be held within 40 days the corresponding decision is made by the Company's Board of Directors.

Where, in accordance with provisions of the Federal Law "On joint-stock companies", the Company's Board of Directors shall make a decision about holding an extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting in order to elect members of the Company's Board of Directors, such General Shareholders Meeting should be held within 90 days the corresponding decision is made by the Company's Board of Directors.

24.4. The request for holding an extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting shall specify items to be included into the Meeting's agenda. Such request may contain wordings of draft resolutions on each of the items along with a proposal on the form in which the General Shareholders Meeting should be conducted. If the request for holding an extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting contains a proposal on nominations to the Board, such proposal shall be subject to relevant provisions of the Article 53 of the Federal Law “On joint-stock companies”.

The Board of Directors shall have no right to amend either wordings of the proposed items on the agenda or draft resolutions, nor shall it change the proposed form for conducting an extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting if requested by the Company’s Audit Commission, the Company’s Auditor or shareholders (a shareholder) owning not less than 10% of the Company’s voting shares.

24.5. Where an extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting is requested by a shareholder (shareholders), the corresponding request shall specify the name(s) of the shareholder(s) making the request for such convocation, and shall give details of the number and category (type) of shares owned by them.

The request for an extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting shall be signed by those requesting it.

24.6. Within 5 days of the date a request for convocation of an extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting is presented by the Company’s Audit Commission, the Company’s Auditor or its shareholders (a shareholder) owning not less than 10% of the Company’s voting shares, the Company’s Board of Directors shall make a resolution on calling an extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting or a resolution with a refusal to do so.

The decision with a refusal to convene an extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting requested by the Company’s Audit Commission, the Company’s Auditor or shareholders (a shareholder) owning not less than 10% of the Company’s voting shares, may be taken if:

the procedure for presenting the request to convene an extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting specified herein has not been complied with;

the shareholder(s) requesting the meeting do(es) not own the number of Company’s voting shares specified by the Clause 24.1 herein;

neither item proposed for an inclusion into the agenda of the extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting falls within the Meeting’s competence and (or) meets the requirements of the Federal Law “On joint-stock companies” or other statutes of the Russian Federation.

24.7. The decision of the Company’s Board of Directors on calling an extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting or a well-founded decision with a refusal to do so, shall be delivered to the persons who have requested the meeting, no later than 3 days after such a decision is made.

The Company’s Board of Director’s decision refusing to convene an extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting may be challenged in court.

24.8. Should the Company’s Board of Directors, within the timeframe set forth in the Clause 24.6 herein, fail to take a decision on calling an extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting or a resolution with a refusal to convene it, such Meeting may be called by the bodies and persons requesting it. In such a case, the bodies and persons that convene the extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting shall have powers and authorities as per the Federal Law “On joint-stock companies” adequate for convocation and holding a General Shareholders Meeting.

In this situation, all costs associated with a preparation and holding the General Shareholders Meeting may be reimbursed at the expense of the Company by resolution of the General Shareholders Meeting.

Article 25. Counting Board.

25.1. Pursuant to Federal Law “On joint-stock companies”, the duties of the Company’s Counting Board shall be carried out by the Company’s registrar.

25.2. The Counting Board shall verify the authority and register persons participating in the General Shareholders Meeting, determine the quorum of the General Shareholders Meeting, clarify matters arising in connection with the exercise of shareholders’ (or their representatives’) rights to vote at the General Meeting, clarify the voting procedure on items put to the vote, enforce the established voting procedure and the rights of shareholders to participate in the voting, count votes and sum up the results of the vote, draft a report on the results of the vote and hand over voting ballots to the records repository.

Article 26. Procedure for shareholders’ participation in the General Shareholders Meeting.

26.1. The right to participate in the General Shareholders Meeting shall be exercised by the shareholder in person or via his/her representative.

The shareholder may at any time replace his/her representative at the General Shareholders Meeting or take part in the Meeting in person.

A shareholder’s representative at the General Shareholders Meeting shall act in accordance with powers based on provisions of Federal Laws, or statutes of duly authorized state bodies or local government bodies, or the power of attorney made up in writing. A proxy card shall contain personal data of the represented entity and the representative (for the individual: name, details of the identity document (series and (or) reference number, date and place of issue, authority issued the document), for the legal entity: name of the entity, details of its location). The proxy card shall be completed in accordance with the requirements of Clauses 4 and 5 of the Article 185 of the Russian Federation’s Civil Code or shall be notarized.

26.2. Where a share is transferred after the date on which a list of persons authorized to participate in the General Shareholders Meeting is issued, and prior to the date of the General Shareholders Meeting, a person included into such list should issue a proxy card in favor of the transferee or vote at the General Meeting following instructions received from the transferee, if this is provided for by the share transfer agreement.

26.3. Where a Company’s share is in joint shared ownership by several entities (persons), powers to vote at the General Shareholders Meeting shall be exercised at their discretion by one of the co-owners or by their common representative. Authorities of each of specified entities (persons) shall be duly recorded.

Article 27. Quorum for the General Shareholders Meeting.

27.1. A General Shareholders Meeting shall be deemed to be legally constituted (having the quorum) if it is attended by shareholders owning more than a half of the Company's placed voting shares in the aggregate.

Such shareholders who have registered for the Meeting, and whose ballots were received at least two days prior to the date of the meeting shall be deemed to have participated in the General Shareholders Meeting. Such shareholders whose ballots had been received by the deadline for accepting ballots shall be deemed to have taken part in the General Shareholders Meeting conducted in the form of absentee voting.

27.2. If the agenda of the Meeting includes items to be voted on by different groups of voters, the quorum for voting on these items shall be determined separately. In this case, the absence of a quorum for making resolutions on items to be voted on by one group of voters shall not prevent resolutions from being made on items to be voted on by another group of voters for which a quorum is present.

27.3. Should there be no quorum for an annual General Shareholders Meeting, a new General Shareholders Meeting shall be held with the same agenda. In the absence of a quorum for an extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting, a new General Shareholders Meeting may be held with the same agenda.

The repeat General Meeting shall be deemed to be legally constituted (having a quorum) if it is attended by shareholders owning at least 30 per cent of the Company's placed voting shares.

A notification of the repeat General Shareholders Meeting shall be made in accordance with the requirements of the Article 52 of the Federal Law "On joint-stock companies". In such case, provisions of the second paragraph of the Clause 1 of the Article 52 of the Federal Law "On joint-stock companies" shall not apply. A handover, submission and release of voting ballots for the repeat General Shareholders Meeting shall be performed in accordance with the requirements of the Article 60 of the Federal Law "On joint-stock companies".

27.4. If the new General Shareholders Meeting is held less than 40 days after the failed General Meeting, persons to be granted the right to participate in the new General Meeting shall be determined in accordance with the list of persons who had the right to participate in the failed meeting.

Article 28. Voting at the General Shareholders Meeting.

28.1. Voting at the General Shareholders Meeting shall be conducted according to the principle of "one voting share of the Company = one vote", except for the cases of cumulative voting as provided in the Federal Law "On joint-stock companies".

Article 29. Voting ballot.

29.1. Voting at the General Shareholders Meeting on the items of the agenda, including voting on the items of the agenda of the General Shareholders Meeting conducted in the form of absentee voting, shall be carried out by ballots.

29.2. If the General Shareholders Meeting is undertaken including by absentee voting, ballot forms shall be sent to shareholders by ordinary mail or handed over against signature to each person listed among those who have the right to participate in the General Shareholders Meeting no later than 20 days prior to the date of the General Shareholders Meeting.

29.3. When a General Shareholders Meeting is conducted except for General Meetings in the form of absentee voting, persons (or their representatives) listed among those who have the right to participate in the General Shareholders Meeting may take part in such Meeting or submit completed ballots to the Company. In such case, in determining a quorum and summing up voting results, only votes presented by voting ballots that have been received by the Company no later than two days prior to the date of the General Shareholders Meeting shall be counted.

29.4. The voting ballot shall contain:

Full corporate name and location of the Company;

23) other matters of the Company’s business activities.

34.2. Matters referred to the competence of the Company's Board of Directors may not be transferred for resolution to the Company's executive body.

Article 35. Election of the Company's Board of Directors.

35.1. Members of the Company's Board of Directors shall be elected at the General Shareholders Meeting per the procedure specified by the Federal Law "On joint-stock companies" and these Articles of Association for a period until the next annual General Shareholders Meeting. If the annual General Shareholders Meeting was not conducted within the period specified by the Clause 1 of the Article 47 of the Federal Law "On joint-stock companies", powers of the Company's Board of Directors shall terminate except for powers related to the preparation, convocation and conduct of the annual General Shareholders Meeting.

35.2. Persons elected to the Company's Board of Directors may be re-elected an unlimited number of times.

By resolution of the General Shareholders Meeting, powers of all members of the Company's Board of Directors may be terminated ahead of time.

35.3. Only a natural person may be elected to the Board of Directors. A non-shareholder may be elected to the Company's Board of Directors.

Members of the collective executive body of the Company may not constitute more than one fourth of the Company's Board of Directors. A person performing duties of the sole executive body may not at the same time be elected as a chairman of the Company's Board of Directors.

35.4. The size of the Company's Board of Directors shall be determined at the General Shareholders Meeting but may not be less than 9 members.

35.5. Members of the Company's Board of Directors shall be elected by a cumulative voting.

For the cumulative voting, number of votes belonging to each shareholder shall be multiplied by the number of persons to be elected to the Company's Board of Directors; a shareholder may give votes thus obtained entirely for one nominee or distribute votes amongst two or more nominees.

Nominees with the greatest number of votes gained shall be deemed to have been elected to the Company's Board of Directors.

Article 36. Chairman of the Company's Board of Directors.

36.1. The Chairman of the Company's Board of Directors shall be elected by members of the Company's Board of Directors from among them by the majority of the total number of votes cast by members of the Board of Directors of the Company.

The Company's Board of Directors shall elect a vice-chairman of the Board from amongst them by the majority of the total number of votes cast by members of the Board of Directors.

The Company's Board of Directors may at any time re-elect its chairman and/or its vice-chairman by the qualified majority comprising of at least two thirds of the votes cast by members of the Board of Directors.

36.2. By resolution of the Company's Board of Directors, the General Shareholders Meeting may be chaired either by the Chairman of the Board of Directors, or the Vice-Chairman, or the Chairman of the Company Management Committee.

36.3. It is the responsibility of the Chairman of the Company's Board of Directors to manage the Board's operations, convene meetings of the Company's Board of Directors and chair them, and make necessary arrangements for the minutes to be maintained during sessions.

36.4. In absence of the Chairman of the Company's Board of Directors, his/her duties shall be performed by the Vice-Chairman of the Board of Directors, and if the Chairman and Vice-Chairman are absent, by any member of the Company's Board of Directors on the resolution of the Company's Board of Directors.

Article 37. Meetings of the Company's Board of Directors.

37.1. Meetings of the Company's Board of Directors shall be convened by the Chairman of the Company's Board of Directors at his/her own initiative, as well as at the request of a member of the Board of Directors, Company Management Committee, Chairman of the Company Management Committee, Audit Commission or the Company's auditor.

37.2. A quorum for the Company's Board of Directors' meeting on items of the agenda that require the majority of the votes of the Board's members attending the meeting shall make up more than half the number of elected members of the Board of Directors.

In the event that the number of the Company's Board of Directors members is less than the stated quorum, the Company's Board of Directors shall make a resolution to conduct an extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting in order to elect new members to the Company's Board of Directors.

37.3. At the Company's Board of Directors meeting, resolutions shall be made by the majority of the votes of the Board's members attending the meeting (simple majority of votes) unless otherwise provided by the Federal Law "On joint-stock companies" or these Articles of Association.

In determining a quorum and results of voting on the agenda items decisions on which are made by the simple majority of votes, a written opinion of the Board's member who is absent at the meeting may be taken into account in cases and subject to the Company's Board of Directors Regulation which is adopted by the General Shareholders Meeting.

37.4. Resolutions of the Company's Board of Directors shall be passed in a unanimous vote, i.e. by all members of the Board of Directors, for the following issues:

submission for consideration at the General Shareholders Meeting as well as inclusion into the General Shareholders Meeting's agenda of issues related to the Company reorganization or winding-up and appointment of the liquidation committee; consummation of the major transaction aimed at the property items with values from 25 to 50 per cent of the net book value of the Company assets at the date on which a decision to make such transaction is made;

placing of the Company's bonds convertible to shares and other equity securities convertible to shares; increasing the Company's charter capital by placing additional shares within the number of shares.

When the Company's Board of Directors makes decisions requiring a unanimous vote, votes of retired members of the Board shall not be taken into account.

37.5. The following resolutions shall be made by the qualified majority of votes, at least two thirds of the Board of Directors votes:

concerning a refusal to convene an extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting;

concerning a refusal to include any item into the General Shareholders Meeting agenda, or to include a nominee into the list of nominees for election to the Company's Board of Directors or Audit Commission in cases stipulated by the Clause 6 of the Article 55 and Clause 5 of the Article 53 of the Federal Law "On joint-stock companies", respectively;

concerning a re-election of the Chairman of the Company's Board of Directors and/or its Vice-Chairman ahead of time.

When the Company's Board of Directors makes decisions requiring the qualified majority of votes, votes of retired members of the Board shall not be taken into account.

37.6. Such resolutions of the Company's Board of Directors that require a unanimous vote or the qualified majority of votes shall be adopted solely at the Company's Board of Directors meetings in physical presence of the Board of Directors members by voting in person.

Other resolutions may be adopted by absentee voting (by way of polling).

37.7. The procedure for convocation and conduct of the Company's Board of Directors meetings, as well as passing resolutions by absentee voting by the Company's Board of Directors shall be determined by the Board of Directors Regulation to be adopted at the General Shareholders Meeting.

37.8. Members of the Company's Board of Directors shall personally perform their duties associated with their membership in the Board of Directors. Neither appointments of representatives by members of the Board of Directors to attend Board of Directors meetings nor delegation of powers to any other persons including other members of the Board to sign voting ballots if decisions are taken by way of polling should be allowed.

37.9. Each member of the Company's Board of Directors shall have one vote unless otherwise provided by the Article 77 and Clause 3 of the Article 83 of the Federal Law "On joint-stock companies".

No assignment of the right to vote by any member of the Board of Directors to any other person, including other member of the Board should be allowed.

In case of equality of votes cast by members of the Company's Board of Directors, the chairman of the Board of Directors shall have a casting vote.

Neither the vice-chairman nor any other member of the Board of Directors performing the Board's chairman's duties in the absence of the latter shall have a casting vote at the Board of Directors meetings.

37.10. Minutes shall be kept during meetings of the Board of Directors of the Company.

Minutes of a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Company shall be completed no later than three days after holding thereof.

The minutes of the meeting shall indicate:

venue and time of the meeting;

list of attendance;

items brought up for vote, and vote returns;

resolutions adopted.

Minutes of a meeting of the Company's Board of Directors shall be signed by the chairperson who is responsible for the proper and accurate execution of the minutes.

37.11. If resolutions of the Company's Board of Directors are to be adopted by absentee voting, the following details shall be indicated in the minutes of the meeting (absentee voting):

date of the meeting (a date of submission of the completed ballot to the Board of Directors indicated on the ballot or, if all ballots were received prior to such date, a date on which the Board receives the last signed ballot);

members of the Board of Directors who submitted their signed ballot papers before the date of the meeting;

items brought up for vote, and vote returns;

resolutions adopted.

Minutes of the meeting (absentee voting) shall be completed within 3 days of the meeting date.

Minutes of the meeting (absentee voting) shall be signed by the Chairman of the Company's Board of Directors. Ballots signed by members of the Company's Board of Directors shall be attached to the minutes.

37.12. Such member of the Company's Board of Directors who did not take part in the voting or who voted against the resolution adopted by the Company's Board of Directors in breach of the procedure established by the Federal Law "On joint-stock companies", other statutes of the Russian Federation or these Articles of Association may appeal such resolution in courts if he/she believes that it violates his/her rights and lawful interests. The corresponding petition may be submitted to the court within one month of the date on which the member of the Board of Directors in question became aware or should have become aware of the adopted resolution.

Article 38. Executive bodies of the Company.
Sole executive body of the Company.

38.1. Executive bodies of the Company are: Chairman of the Company Management Committee (sole executive body) and Company Management Committee (collective executive body).

Executive bodies shall report to the Company's Board of Directors and General Shareholders Meeting.

38.2. The competence of executive bodies of the Company includes all issues of everyday business of the Company, except for the issues referred to the competence of the General Shareholders Meeting or the Board of Directors of the Company.

The executive bodies of the Company shall facilitate the performance of resolutions adopted by the General Shareholders Meeting and the Company's Board of Directors.

38.3. The Chairman of the Company Management Committee shall have a right to resolve all issues associated with the management of the Company's everyday business except for such issues that have been referred to the competence of the General Shareholders Meeting, Board of Directors or the Company Management Committee.

The Chairman of the Company Management Committee, without a power of attorney, shall act on behalf of the Company, such as represent its interests, carry out transactions on behalf of the Company, approve staffing plans, issue orders and decrees, give instructions binding on all employees, sign all documents on behalf of the Company, approve the Company's internal documents/by-laws governing its everyday business except for such internal documents associated with the Company's activities that have been referred to the competence of the General Shareholders Meeting, Board of Directors and Company Management Committee pursuant to these Articles of Association.

The Chairman of the Company Management Committee is entitled, by agreement with the Company's Board of Directors, to appoint his/her deputies who shall perform their duties within terms of reference distributed between him/her and the Chairman of the Company Management Committee.

For the period of his/her absence and in other circumstances, the Chairman of the Company Management Committee may appoint a person from among the Company's officials to replace him/her as the Chairman on a temporary basis.

38.4. The Chairman of the Company Management Committee shall represent the Management Committee at the Board of Directors meetings and General Shareholders Meetings.

38.5. The Chairman and members of the Company Management Committee shall be elected by the Company's Board of Directors for a term of 5 years.

The Company's Board of Directors may, at any time, take a decision to terminate powers of the Chairman of the Company Management Committee and members of the Management Committee ahead of time and establish new executive bodies.

38.6. Rights and obligations of the Chairman of the Company Management Committee and its members related to the management of the Company's everyday business shall be determined by the Federal Law "On joint-stock companies", other statutes of the Russian Federation and by agreement which each of them signs with the Company.

The agreement, on behalf of the Company, shall be signed by the Chairman of the Company's Board of Directors or by a person duly authorized by the Board of Directors.

Relationships between the Company and the Chairman/members of the Company Management Committee shall be subject to the Russian Federation Labor Laws to the extent where it is not at variance with provisions of the Federal Law "On joint-stock companies".

A person performing duties of the Chairman/members of the Company Management Committee may assume positions in management bodies of other organizations only if permitted by the Company's Board of Directors.

Article 39. Collective executive body of the Company.

39.1. The Company Management Committee shall act on the basis of the Company's Articles of Association and the Regulation on the Management Committee approved by the General Shareholders Meeting which establishes timeframes, procedure for convocation and conduct of the Company Management Committee meetings as well as a procedure for making resolutions.

39.2. The competence of the Company Management Committee includes:

1) working out, for submitting to the Company's Board of Directors of the Company, long-term plans and mainline programs of the Company's business, including annual budget and investment programs of the Company, preparation of reports on performance thereof, as well as working out and approval of short-term plans of the Company's business;

other financial statements to the relevant authorities, as well as providing information on the Company's business to shareholders, creditors and mass media;

6) establishing a procedure for communicating information about the Company business to shareholders;

7) establishing a procedure for maintaining records of the Company subsidiaries;

8) approval of the Company internal documents/by-laws on issues referred to the competence of the Company Management Committee;

9) resolution of other issues of the Company everyday business brought up by the Chairman of the Company Management Committee.

39.3. A meeting of the Company Management Committee shall be deemed legally constituted (having a quorum) if it is attended by at least half the number of elected members of the Company Management Committee.

39.4. If the number of Company Management Committee's members becomes less than the quorum specified in Clause 39.3 herein, the Company's Board of Directors should establish a Management Committee legally capable of making resolutions.

39.5. Minutes shall be maintained at meetings of the Company Management Committee. The minutes of the Company Management Committee meetings shall be provided to members of the Board of Directors, Audit Commission and Company's auditor upon their request.

It is the responsibility of the Chairman of the Company Management Committee to make necessary arrangements for meetings to be held.

No assignment of any rights to vote by any member of the Company Management Committee to any other person, including other member of the Company Management Committee should be allowed.

Article 40. Responsibility of members of the Company's Board of Directors, Chairman and members of the Company Management Committee.

40.1. In exercising their rights and performing their duties, members of the Company's Board of Directors, Chairman/members of the Company Management Committee shall act for the benefit of the Company, exercise their rights and perform their duties in respect of the Company reasonably and in good faith, meet confidentiality requirements in respect of information about Company business that considered official and proprietary secrets.

40.2. Members of the Company's Board of Directors, Chairman and members of the Company Management Committee shall assume liability to the Company for any loss caused to the Company by their wrongful acts (omissions to act) unless otherwise stipulated by the Federal Laws in respect of the basis and extent of responsibility.

Members of the Company's Board of Directors, Chairman/members of the Company Management Committee shall assume liability to the Company or its shareholders for any loss caused by their wrongful acts (omissions to act) that violate the procedure for the acquisition of Company shares provided in the Chapter XI.1 of the Federal Law "On joint-stock companies".

In this case, such members of the Company's Board of Directors and Company Management Committee who votes against the resolution that entailed loss to the Company or who did not take part in the voting shall not be held liable.

40.3. In determining the basis and extent of the liability of members of the Company's Board of Directors, Chairman/members of the Company Management Committee, normal business practices and other circumstances significant for the matter shall be taken into account.

40.4. If, in accordance with provisions of this Article, several persons bear liability, their liability to the Company, and in case stipulated by the second paragraph of Clause 40.2 of this Article, their liability to the shareholder shall be shared.

40.5. The Company or a shareholder (shareholders) owning 1 per cent or more of outstanding common shares of the Company in the aggregate shall have a right to appeal to a court with a law suit against a member of the Company's Board of Directors, Chairman/member of the Company Management Committee for recovery of damages caused to the Company in case stipulated by the first paragraph of Clause 40.2 of these Articles of Association.

The Company or a shareholder shall have a right to appeal to a court with a law suit against a member of the Company's Board of Directors, Chairman/member of the Company Management Committee for recovery of damages caused to it/him/her in case stipulated by the second paragraph of Clause 40.2 of these Articles of Association.

40.6. Representatives of the Government in the Company's Board of Directors shall assume liability stipulated by this Article equal with other members of the Company's Board of Directors.

CHAPTER VIII

Major transactions.

Article 41. Major transaction.

41.1. A transaction (including loan, credit, pledge, surety) or a series of associated transactions shall be deemed major if it involves either directly or indirectly the purchase, disposal or possible disposal by the Company of assets with value exceeding 25 per cent of the net book value of the Company assets as estimated per its financial statements at the closing date, except for transactions made in the ordinary course of the Company business, transactions related to placement of the Company equity shares by subscription (distribution), those related to placement of equity securities convertible to equity stock of the Company and transactions that the Company is required to make in accordance with Federal Laws and (or) other statutes of the Russian Federation and settlements for which are carried out at the prices determined per the procedure established by the Russian Federation Government or at the prices and rates established by the federal executive body duly authorized by the Russian Federation Government.

In the event of disposal or possible disposal of the property, the value of such property determined per balance sheet data shall be compared against the net book value of Company assets; and in the event of the property purchase, the purchase value shall be compared against the net book value of Company assets.

41.2. In order for the Company's Board of Directors and the General Shareholders Meeting to adopt a resolution approving a major transaction, the value of disposed or purchased property (services) shall be determined by the Company's Board of Directors in accordance with the Article 77 of the Federal Law "On joint-stock companies".

Article 42. Procedure for major transaction approval.

42.1. A major transaction shall be approved by the Company's Board of Directors or by the General Shareholders Meeting as prescribed by this Article.

42.2. A major transaction which involves property constituting from 25 to 50 per cent of the net book value of Company assets shall be approved by all members of the Company's Board of Directors in a unanimous vote provided, however, that votes of retired members of the Company's Board of Directors should not be taken into account.

Should the Company's Board of Directors fail to pass a unanimous resolution in respect of a major transaction, such issue may be put to vote at the General Shareholders Meeting following the appropriate resolution of the Board of Directors. In this event, a resolution to approve such major transaction shall be passed by the majority of votes belonging to voting share holders present at the General Shareholders Meeting.

42.3. A major transaction which involves property constituting over 50 per cent of the net book value of Company assets shall be passed at the General Shareholders Meeting by the majority of three fourths of votes belonging to voting share holders present at the General Meeting.

42.4. A resolution approving a major transaction shall specify a person (persons) who is (are) a party (parties) to such transaction and its beneficiary, price, subject of the transaction and other material terms and conditions of the transaction.

42.5. In the event that a major transaction equally involves interest from the Company, the provisions of Chapter XI of the Federal Law "On joint-stock companies" shall only apply.

42.6. A major transaction made in violation of this Article's requirements may be declared invalid if so claimed by the Company or a shareholder.

Article 43. Acquisition of more than 30 per cent of the Company shares.

An acquisition of more than 30 per cent of the Company shares shall be carried out in accordance with provisions of the Chapter XI.1 of the Federal Law “On joint-stock companies”.

CHAPTER IX

Related-party transactions.

Article 44. Related-party transactions.

44.1. If a member of the Company’s Board of Directors, Chairman/member of the Company Management Committee or a shareholder who hold jointly with its subsidiaries 20 or more per cent of the voting shares as well as a person entitled to issue instructions binding on the Company, is interested in a transaction (including loan, credit, pledge, surety), such transactions shall be consummated by the Company in accordance with provisions of this Article of the Company Articles of Association.

The said persons shall be deemed interested in a transaction, if they, their spouses, parents, children, siblings, half-brothers and half-sisters, adoptive parents, adopted children and (or) their subsidiaries:

are a party to such transaction or involved in it as an agent, beneficiary or representative;

hold (separately or collectively) 20 or more per cent of the shares (interests, equities) in the legal entity who is a party to the transaction or involved in it as a representative, beneficiary or agent;

hold managerial positions in a legal entity who is a party to the transaction or involved in it as a representative, beneficiary or agent, or hold managerial position in a holding company of such legal entity.

44.2. Provisions of approval of related-party transactions shall not apply to certain categories of transactions specified by the Federal Law “On joint-stock companies”.

Article 45. Information of Related-party transactions.

45.1. Persons listed in the Article 44 of these Articles of Association shall communicate to the Company’s Board of Directors, Audit Commission and Company’s auditor the information concerning:

legal entities in which they separately or collectively with subsidiaries hold 20 or more per cent of voting shares (interests, equities);

legal entities in which they hold managerial positions;

transactions being consummated or proposed to be consummated known to them in which they may be recognized as related parties.

Article 46. Procedure for Related-party transaction approval.

46.1. A related-party transaction shall be approved by the Company's Board of Directors or the General Shareholders Meeting prior to its consummation in accordance with this Article.

46.2. A resolution on approval of the related-party transaction shall be passed by the majority of votes of non-related directors in the Company's Board of Directors. Should all members of the Board of Directors be recognized related parties and (or) not independent directors, the transaction may be approved by a resolution of the General Shareholders Meeting adopted as prescribed by the Clause 46.3 of these Articles of Association.

Any member of the Company's Board of Directors who is not and was not, during one year before passing the resolution, any of the following, is recognized as an independent director:

- a person performing duties of the sole executive body of the Company such as executive manager, a member of the collective executive body, a person holding managerial positions in the managing organization;

- a person whose spouse, parents, children, siblings, half-brothers and half-sisters, adoptive parents, adopted children hold positions in the above-mentioned managing bodies of the Company and managing organizations of the Company or are executive managers of the Company;

- a subsidiary of the Company other than members of the Company's Board of Directors.

46.3. A resolution to approve a related-party transaction shall be passed at the General Shareholders Meeting by the majority of the vote of all voting share holders not related to such transaction in the following cases:

- If such transaction or several related transactions involve property with the value per accounting data (offer price of purchased property) exceeding 2 per cent or more of the net book value of Company assets as per data contained in the Company financial statements at the closing date except for transactions specified by the third and fourth paragraphs in this Clause;

- If such transaction or several related transactions involve placement by subscription (distribution) of shares constituting more than 2 per cent of equity shares earlier placed by the Company and equity shares convertible from earlier placed equity securities convertible to shares;

- If such transaction or several related transactions involve placement by subscription of equity securities convertible to shares that can be converted to equity shares constituting more than 2 per cent of equity shares earlier placed by the Company and equity shares convertible from earlier placed equity securities convertible to shares.

46.4. Where conditions of a related-party transaction do not materially differ from these of equivalent transactions made in the ordinary course of the Company business between the Company and a related party which had occurred before the related party was recognized as such, such related-party transaction may be made without obtaining the relevant resolution from the General Shareholders Meeting prescribed by the Clause 46.3 herein. This exemption shall apply only to related-party transactions made within a period after the party is recognized as related and until the next annual General Shareholders Meeting.

46.5. A resolution to approve a related-party transaction shall specify the person (persons) who is (are) the party to such transaction, its beneficiary (beneficiaries), price, subject of the transaction and other material terms and conditions thereof.

The General Shareholders Meeting may pass a resolution to approve a transaction(s) between the Company and a related party which can be made in future in the ordinary course of the Company business. The resolution of the General Shareholders Meeting shall also specify the maximum amount of the transaction(s). This resolution shall be valid until the next annual General Shareholders Meeting.

46.6. For the Company's Board of Directors and General Shareholders Meeting to approve a related-party transaction, the Company's Board of Directors shall determine the price of assets or services to be purchased or sold in accordance with the Article 77 of the Federal Law "On joint-stock companies".

46.7. Additional requirements to consummation of a related-party transaction may be established by the federal executive body responsible for the stock market.

Article 47. Non-compliance with related-party transaction requirements and its consequences.

47.1. A related-party transaction consummated in violation of requirements to the transaction prescribed by the Federal Law "On joint-stock companies" may be recognized invalid if so claimed by the Company or a shareholder.

47.2. A related party shall bear liability to the Company to the extent of the damage caused. If several persons bear liability to the Company, their liability shall be considered shared.
